Number 43

Growth of Canyon Is Shown in Report

In order to gain a more accurate picture of the future needs of Canyon, a committee of citizens have made a study of the growth of Canyon during the past years for the purpose of determining the future needs of the public schools.

Other committees are at work on the problem of building the new school plant which must be ready for operation by September, 1955.

Meter connections of the Southwestern Public Service Co. reveal a growth of 90 connections during the past ten years. In 1942 there were 828 connections; in 1952 this number had increased to 1830; by 1960 it is projected that the number will be 2550.

In 1945 there were 741 connections with the West Texas Gas Co. This number has grown to 1298 in 1952, or a growth of 78 meter connections per year. Projected to 1960, the number will be 1688.

In 1942 there were 793 water meters connected with the city water plant. In 1952 the number had grown to 1276, showing a net increase of 38 meters per year. Projected to 1960, the number should be 1588.

In 1942 there were 673 pupils enrolled in the public schools. In 1952 the number had grown to 1097. According to the present growth, the number will total 1431 in 1959.

In 1941 there were 54 enrolled in the first grade of the school. This has grown to 100 in 1951; with a projection of 120 by 1959. The school census shows 655 in 1942; 1208 in 1952.

Other interesting figures will be shown by the study of other committees in connection with the need of the new school plant.

Less Than 50% Pay Poll Taxes

Bill Money, Randall county tax assessor and collector, said Tuesday the total number of poll tax receipts this year would probably amount to 2,800 or 2,900. This, he added, was merely a guess and not an accurate tabulation.

Poll tax receipts in South Amarillo were turned over to various groups and individuals. Those not sold have not all been turned in and complete reports are lacking. Therefore it is impossible to arrive at an accurate figure at this time.

Money said he figured the entire sale of poll taxes would be approximately one-half or less of the county's qualified voters. Total number of qualified voters in the county, he said, would probably lie in the vicinity of 6,500 or 7,000 people.

Guest-Employee Party Is Given By Gas Company

Approximately 30 people, including employees of the West Texas Gas Company, were present for the one-night demonstration held Tuesday night, January 27, at the gas company headquarters here. The demonstration showed how delicious quick snacks could be prepared from a gas refrigerator and also highlighted the C-P Ranges.

The two demonstrators were Mrs. Helen Nichols, Home Service Demonstrator for West Texas Gas Company, and Mrs. Mary Rye, Home Service Advisor. They were assisted by Mrs. Bill Deardorf.

After the demonstration Bill McCarrall showed a picture of the C-P Ranges. The picture explained the tests, standards, and inspections the stoves must pass before qualifying for the gas company's C-P trademark.

Among the gifts distributed to those present were such items as sets of glasses, aprons, and cookbooks. The winners were selected by drawing numbers. The lucky ones were Mrs. J. M. Boyce, a gas company employee, Miss Gladys Robb of Amarillo, and Johnny McBride, another gas company employee. All of these won a set of glasses each. A cigarette lighter was won by Tige McLaury.

Guests were served cookies and sandwiches. This was also a demonstration showing how quickly and easily such refreshments could be prepared from the gas refrigerator.

Silas Hart Marks 15th Anniversary

"Our relations with the public have been perfect and only the kind of cooperation that the public has given is responsible for our success," said Silas Hart Monday.

The day marked the 15th anniversary of the Hart Appliance and Furniture Company in Canyon. It was February 2, 1938, when Mr. Hart opened the doors of his present business on the west side of the square. Walking over the floor of the business and recalling the past with a smile seems very becoming to the successful business man. He explains the business and how it grew from a struggling beginning to the secure firm it is today.

Hart muses that his undertaking started on February 2 as he first left home to file on land in New Mexico on February 2. It was also on this day that he went into the butane gas business.

Concerning his business here, Mr. Hart says, "I hope to give the public another 15 years of service that are as satisfactory as the past 15 years."

Palo Duro Park Attendance Over Previous Years

More than 2,000 persons attended Palo Duro Canyon State Park last week, according to official attendance records. Fair weather Sunday brought out a tremendous crowd and the scenery was at its best for this time of year.

Attendance at the park last year was 148,884 and the number of out-of-state cars to enter Palo Duro was greater than any other state or national park in Texas. This has been true the past two years. In each instance San Jose Mission in San Antonio with its beautiful Rose window has been second and Big Bend National Park third in attracting out-of-state visitors.

"Attendance in January ran consistently ahead of a year ago and the big crowds witnessed at the park last week shows the season to be starting about a month earlier," said John McCarty, concessionaire. "It is entirely possible for the attendance to reach 200,000 or perhaps 250,000 in 1953 if an activities program and a wholehearted booster spirit is attained."

Additional horses were purchased this week to accommodate the demand from visitors who enjoy riding the trails and seeing the Canyon from horseback.

During the winter 100 pounds of bluebonnet seed have been broadcast and some 25 pounds of a variety of wild flowers. This program has been under the sponsorship of District One of the Texas Garden Clubs.

Attendance at the park prior to 1949 when the present concessionaire took charge averaged about 50,000 annually. A new record has been set each year since and in 1952 the attendance almost tripled any year prior to 1949.

Scouts Celebrate 43rd Birthday February 7-13

During the second week of February the Boy Scouts of America will observe the 43rd birthday of that organization. The movement started less than half-a-century ago and now has a membership of 3,250,000 boys and adult leaders enrolled.

The nation has been strengthened by the high ideals of the Boy Scouts. Since its beginning in 1910 the organization has benefitted 20,200,000 through training, fellowship, handicraft, skills and the high adventure of scouting.

This year "Boy Scout Week" places major emphasis on the "Scout Family." Honor goes to the many fathers of Scouts among the 850,000 adult volunteer leaders in the organization. It also salutes 127,209 mothers who give generously of their time as den mothers in the Cub Scout ranks. This phase of training is one of the main objectives of family life. It is in the Cubs that the boys and their parents work together and family ties are strengthened.

In the Scouts the need for boys from the ages of 8 to 14 are met. There are 58,934 churches, schools, synagogues, civic and fraternal groups sponsoring the nation's 84,300 Scout units. The program is aimed at building better citizenship through closer family life.

The present workers sponsor three programs but Scout leaders and workers stress the need for an additional program. This program would give the Scout program a span of ten years, between 8 and 18.

C-C Membership Goal Is Set at 60

Canyon Chamber of Commerce observed the kick-off for its membership drive Tuesday morning with the membership committee enjoying coffee and donuts at the Cowboy Cafe. Plans were formulated for a goal of 60 new members in the organization this year.

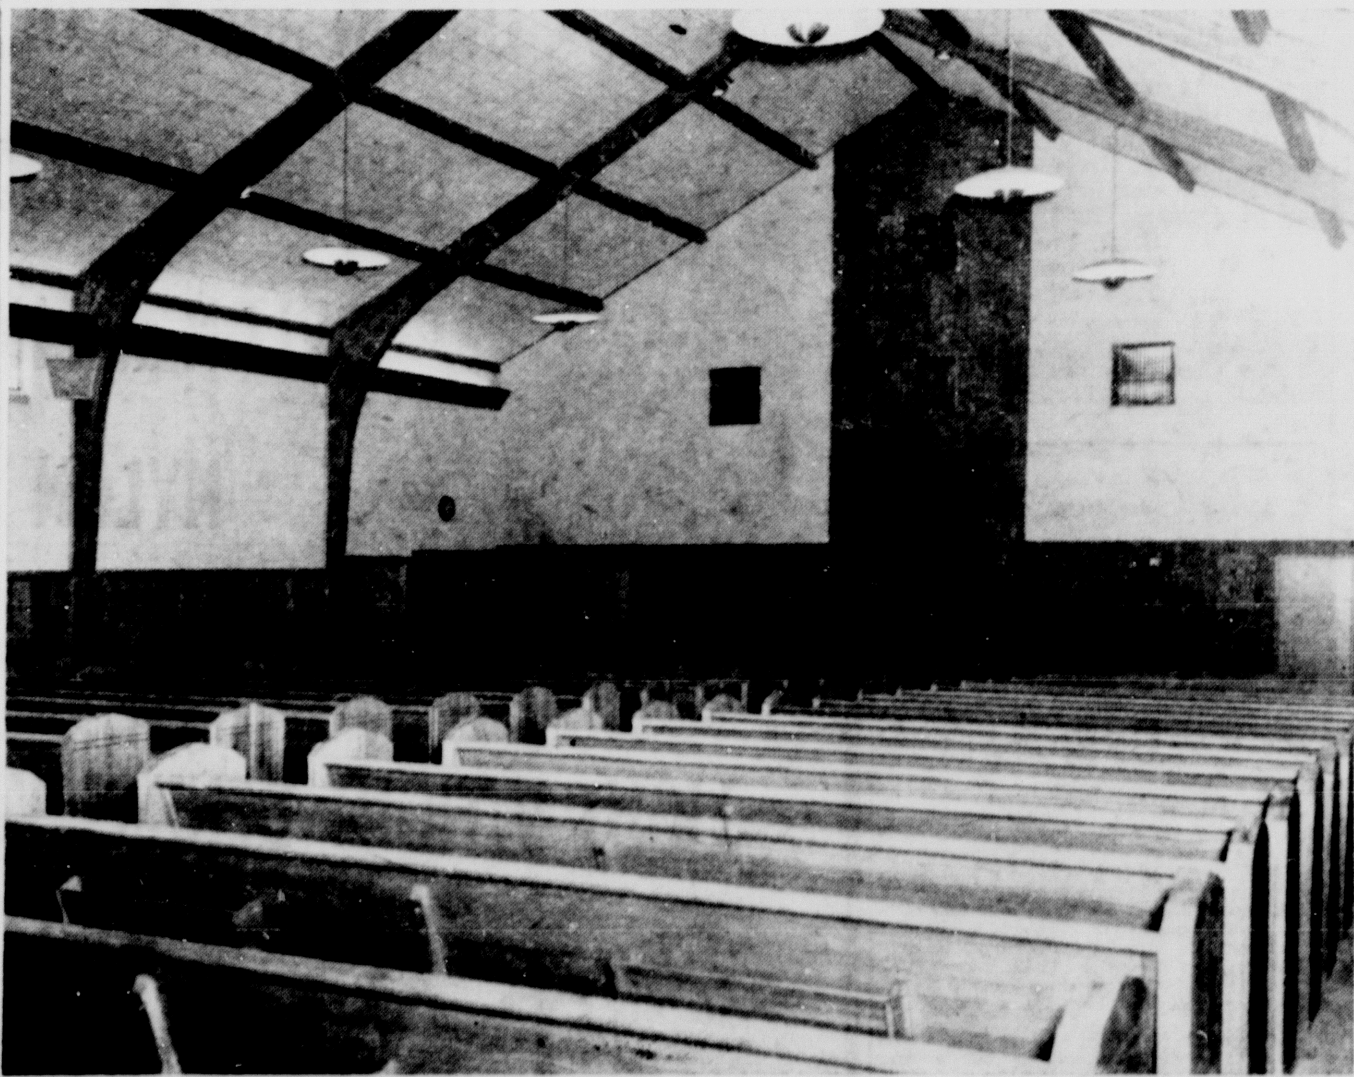

Don Standley heads a committee of 16 members responsible for the task of enlarging the membership. Glenn Waggoner, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, reports that the committee has a fairly high goal but with the cooperation of the public it should be attained.

The new sewer system for Canyon will be completed early in March, stated Mayor Andy Walsh Monday.

Charity Game Set For February 24

A basketball game, which may be lacking in athletic prowess, but which should provide comic relief, will be waged Feb. 24 between faculty at West Texas State College and the combined talents of the Canyon Rotary and Lions clubs.

Proceeds from the "game," which will be played in the new field house at the college, will go to the Lions Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville.

Good, straight basketball is promised for at least a portion of the game, but, according to Dr. Dudley Moore, one of the planners of the affair, anything can, and most likely will, happen. Coach Hatcher Brown is directing the supply muscles of the faculty who dare to play.

Admission charges now set are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students and children. Tickets will go on sale next week.

ATTEND FAMILY REUNION

Mrs. E. C. Hawes recently attended a family reunion in the G. L. Hunter home in Munday. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Myers, who had attended the reunion also, accompanied Mrs. Hawes on her return to Canyon to visit here for a few days.

Services Next Sunday To Be Held in Beautiful New Church

The Church of Christ will be occupied for the first time in the services next Sunday, according to Joe Watson, minister of the congregation.

Funds for the new building were started about five years ago. In December of 1948 the church set aside the contributions of the first Sunday of each month for the building. More than $55,000 has thus been raised. Including the price of the lot, the plant cost about $85,000, but considering the large savings in construction through volunteer labor and material, the estimated value would run around $100,000.

Elders of the church are R. H. Jennings, C. N. Plaster, C. W. Smith, J. R. Devin, G. W. Cox, Deacons are E. A. Brown, E. W. Bourn, and Wayne McNeill. The church treasurer is Hampton Lisle. Serving with the officials of the church on the building committee were T. M. Thurmon, S. H. Jones, Shelby Hood, J. B. Roberts, Earl L. Craig, and Joe Watson.

During 1950-51, plans were studied, and the church accepted those submitted by Smith & Warder of Grand Prairie. Construction started in April, 1952. T. O. Appleton of Tulsa was the builder. Local labor was employed.

An off-the-street parking area of 14,000 square feet, complete with walks and paved entrances is on the same block with the building, at Fourth Avenue and 20th Street.

The small sign on the corner is temporary, and will soon be replaced with a lighted bulletin of masonry construction.

Two floodlights will illuminate the front of the building at night.

The auditorium will seat 500 persons. There are 13 classrooms, two work rooms, dressing rooms, nursery, ladies lounge, rest rooms, study and a large foyer, all conveniently arranged and connected by halls and corridors.

One entrance to the building is of ramp type, with no steps, for the convenience of those confined to wheel chairs.

Individual hearing aids will be provided those in the auditorium who desire them.

The nursery has double plate glass front, and is provided with a speaker wired with the public

Forest Service Will Send Trees by Truck

Randall county people will receive a special favor from the Texas Forest Service this year. Because this county led all others in this area in the number of windbreak trees planted in 1952, the Forest Service will deliver trees to Canyon directly from the nursery by truck.

The truck will arrive in Canyon February 26th, bearing trees for local people. It will arrive directly from Woodward, Okla., where the trees are grown.

Those desiring trees this year should act promptly to get their order completed and processed before delivery date. For trees secure an order blank from one of the Extension Service offices and leave the completed order with John Brazill or Miss Lou Ella Patterson. The orders will be handled in bulk.

Cost of the trees is $1.50 per hundred delivered in Canyon. There are several varieties of trees available from which to choose.

This delivery will in no way interfere with orders already processed. Those requesting delivery by parcel post on specified dates will receive their trees on time. Also, those desiring delivery by parcel post after the February date may still do so.

A few surplus trees may be delivered by the truck and will be sold to those not having an order on record. The safe thing to do in order to receive the full number of correct species is to place your order promptly.

A tree is one of nature's grandest creations. Around a home it adds beauty and distinction. Trees properly located and cultivated add protection from nature's other creations such as wind, sun, heat and sand.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Stallings and daughter, Nina, left for San Francisco, Calif., Sunday to visit her daughter, mother and brother, in points near San Francisco.

Sunday at 3 p. m. there will be a service of one hour, consisting of congregational singing and remarks by a few visiting speakers. At 4 o'clock all visitors will be directed on an inspection tour through the building.

At 5:30 p. m. the marriage of Miss Peggy Maynard and Leon Crouch will be solemnized. The public is cordially invited.

The evening worship starts at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Watson invites all persons in Randall county to visit the new building Sunday, or at any other time which is convenient.

New License Go On Sale Monday

New auto license plates went on sale here on Monday and can be installed on cars immediately. The new plates have black letters on an orange background.

Randall County letters this year are AY and AZ. Potter County also has some licenses beginning with AY. The Potter County numbers with the AY prefix begin with 10 and go through 8249. Randall County's license plates with the AY prefix have numbers beginning with 8250 and going through 9999.

The motoring public will have two months in which to purchase license plates and get them on their cars. The final date for buying the new 1953 plates without being penalized is April 1.

Murder Trial of Pair Is Scheduled For February 16

February 16 is the date set for the trial of Earl George Roberson and Joseph Paul Lucas charged with murder in connection with the Harry Gibbs death. Gibbs, an Amarillo taxicab driver, was slain Thursday night, January 8, in South Amarillo which lies in Randall county.

Deane Watson, assistant district attorney, announced the tentative date of the trial to be held in 47th District Court in Canyon.

Lucas has not yet retained a lawyer while Roberson is being represented by George McCarthy of Amarillo.

The pair was arrested the night of the murder. Roberson went to the police station in Amarillo to report an attack upon him by a knife wielding assailant. His story was weak and he was held as a suspect. A short time later Lucas also appeared at the station inquiring about his friend. He later confessed his part in the murder.

Attendance Boost At P-P Museum

Tabulation of attendance figures for 1952 show that four times as many persons visited the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum here during the past year than in 1943.

C. Boone McClure, director, said the quadrupling of attendance is just one evidence of the museum's growth and appeal to the public.

A total of 87,404 persons visited the museum in 1952, compared with 24,918 in 1943. All 48 of the United States were represented in the guest list, and 60.35 per cent of the counties of the United States. All counties of Delaware, Oklahoma, and Rhode Island were represented, and all but one county in New Hampshire and New Mexico. More than half the counties from 35 states were represented among visitors.

McClure said he expects attendance to reach past the 100,000 mark this year.

CAR STOLEN RECOVERED

A 1949 Mercury which was stolen in Amarillo Thursday night was recovered by Sheriff L. S. Johnston and his deputies south of Buffalo Lake.

The car was taken from a used car dealer.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Republicans Are Making Fools Of Themselves—and Not Demos

In years past, Democrats have been in the habit of saying that they made fools of themselves at the psychological moment when they should be standing for unity. As a result of these disruptions, we have charged ourselves with the responsibility of losing many political battles.

Now comes the Republicans, in power for the first time in 20 years, outdoing the Democrats in making fools of themselves.

The honeymoon is over so far as President Eisenhower is concerned.

Chances are that the President will be forced to reply upon the approval and close cooperation of Southern Democrats in order to put over much of his program.

The Republicans are not to be charged with the Charles Wilson affairs, in which he was forced to sell his stock in General Motors in order to serve the nation. Senator Byrd of Virginia first brought to the attention of the Senate the old laws which kept men from cabinet positions unless they severed their relations with big corporations.

No doubt this has been a good law under certain circumstances, but one which has been sidestepped in many instances.

A long list of cabinet officers, who owned vast amounts of stock during their administrations, was published last week in a popular magazine. Not all poor men are honest; and certainly all rich men are not crooks.

There is a vast difference between poor or honesty; and rich and crooked. Charles E. Wilson was praised by all who have known him for years, and his honesty or ability has never been questioned.

After he was forced to sell his motor stock, he saw to it that every man in his department followed suit.

The second clash between the Republicans and the White House came with the re-organization plan which Eisenhower desired. He wants to clean up the government, but his hands will be tied by members of his own political party.

Republicans should remember that Eisenhower was not elected alone by their votes, but by the will of the people. The voters were sick and tired of corruption in high places, and were anxious to have the change perfected by giving the new president a free hand to clean up the mess which Truman left in Washington.

We shall see what we shall see. GOP is on trial in office and unless the party is willing to stand by its leader, the people will see to it that the party is kicked out of office in 1956.

Walter Woodul Retires After Distinguished Service to State

Walter Woodul will not be reappointed as a member of the Board of Regents for Teachers Colleges, according to word from Austin. The Governor has other plans in mind. So far he has not announced his choice for the place.

Walter Woodul was a State Senator when we were a freshman member of the House in 1929. He became our friend, because he was of a friendly disposition. He was elected Lieutenant Governor after we retired from the House, and served with distinction. He was defeated for the office of Governor.

When he was named as a member of the Board of Regents, some folks were of the opinion that he was selling his influence to a mighty small class in the vast educational set-up of Texas. This has been far from the truth.

Another member of this Board of Regents who has served long and with honor to himself said of Walter Woodul the other day: "During my tenure of office I have never served with a more faithful or honorable member than Woodul. He has read every report which has been made on the condition of the schools of the state; thoroughly digests these reports; and knows what to do in emergency. I regret very much that he is about to retire. I look upon him as the most valuable member of the Board of Regents."

Woodul was asked to continue as a member of the board, and many letters and telegrams were sent to Governor Shivers, asking that he be reappointed. But politics are what they are through no fault of any person or persons in Texas.

Poll Taxes Paid; But No Bosh About Last Week's Story

"You were a bit hot and bothered when you published that scare story on the front page last week about poll tax payments," stated a reader Friday.

No, indeed we were not hot and bothered. Every word of the story was carefully read by the entire staff and passed upon as stating the facts, and nothing but the facts.

All citizens of Randall county have realized for some time that sooner or later the fight to move the court house would come before the voters. An Amarillo man proposed this very thing about 20 years ago. This is nothing new.

When the new encyclopedia came out with the bare faced lie that Amarillo was the county seat of both Potter and Randall county, a lot of folks hit the ceiling. Where did the information originate? Who told the publishers that this was the case?

Several letters of protest have been written to the publishers, but only evasive answers have been received. The publishers are not telling where they received the information. This statement came from some source; some source in Amarillo, no doubt.

We have no idea as to what the poll tax payments this year will show. This is written on Thursday, with three more days to go. The people of Canyon who really know the situation are pretty much aroused and are paying their poll taxes.

What are they doing in South Amarillo? We do not know at this time.

If you've never tried a Canyon News classified, you will be surprised at the results they accomplish.

Closed Door Policy Is Bad For Any Taxing Group

We see that the Commissioners Court of Gray County is being sued for $9,000 and the cancellation of a contract which was made by the court in a closed-door meeting.

We know nothing of the merits of the case, but we have observed that closed door, or executive meetings are a very bad thing so far as the policy of any governing body is concerned. Sometime such meetings are needed and should be held, but upon very, very rare occasions.

In this particular case, reporters were barred from the meeting at Pampa, and a contract let which was held in secrecy for several months. The fact that the contract was let and kept under cover caused the reporters to smell a mouse and they started to investigate. Their findings is the cause for the suit.

We do not know what policy is followed in Randall county. Only upon one occasion did the Commissioners Court ask for an executive meeting, but a group of citizens refused to leave; the policy of other governing bodies, such as city and school, may be different. The News does not make it a policy to cover such meetings, as we can find out the happening of the group in a few minutes rather than spend an entire evening or day in listening to uninteresting talk. Perhaps we are missing a good bet by not attending such meetings.

One thing is sure and certain: Where public money is being spent, it is the safest policy if those who spend the money shall give a public account of their expenditures.

Columnists Are as Thick as Hair on Dog's Back in Nation

The easiest way to edit a newspaper is to fill the columns with dope from the columnists.

You would have no idea how many folks there are scattered over the nation who think that their columns should be printed in The Canyon News.

Every week a new one shows up, offering his brain storm at a price—usually a very small price.

So far, we are frank to admit that we are publishing too many columns. Too many folks are saying their say.

When January 1st came we were determined to publish more short personal items in the weekly edition of the paper. Gathering this news takes a lot of time, and time means money.

With the turn of the New Year came an epidemic of flu which has knocked our good ideas into a cocked hat.

We need more personal items—a whole lot more of this type of news. Will you help us get this news? Thanks.

Truman Spouts Off Again on The Russian Atomic Bomb

Former President Harry S. Truman likes to pull surprises on the people. It seems that he handles the truth with a great deal of freedom.

While he was in the White House he shocked the public by casually announcing that the Russians had the atomic bomb; that one had been tested.

Now comes the same man who shocked the public a few months ago and again shocks the public by saying that the Russians may not have the bomb.

Just which Truman is right—the man in the White House or the ex-president in Missouri?

What was his game, if he made the original announcement? To get more money from Congress?

What is the game now? To lull the public into a state of unpreparedness? Or to embarrass the new President?

It is inconceivable that any President or ex-president could treat the truth so lightly, or be so careless with the feelings of the parents of boys who are fighting and dying in Korea.

If Canyon wants to go forward, it can accomplish the job but, first, the people must make up their minds as to what they want to do.

Haines-Perry Double Ring Ceremony Read in Methodist Church Sunday

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HOMER PERRY, JR.

On Sunday afternoon, February 1, at 3 o'clock, Miss Joanna Belle Haines, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Haines, became the bride of William Homer Perry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Homer Perry of San Angelo.

Rev. Herschel L. Thurston of Colorado City read the double ring ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church.

Jade foliage formed the background for the arch style candelabra that were entwined with lemon leaves. Large baskets of white gladioli and blue delphinium flanked the altar. Plumose garlands decorated the white satin draped choir and communion rail. The bridal prayer bench was satin draped.

Mrs. Glenn Dowlen at the organ played "Indian Love Call," "At Dawning," "I Love You Truly" and "Because" as a pre-nuptial prelude. She accompanied Miss Wanda Gollehan, who sang "O Promise Me" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction. Mrs. Dowlen also played the traditional wedding marches as the processional and recessional. "Seven" formed a soft musical background for the wedding service.

Mrs. W. H. Kitchens, matron of honor, and Misses Valeta and Vergie Haines, bridesmaids to their sister, wore identical floor length dresses of bluebird blue net over taffeta styled with tight bodices, finished with petal points and multiple rows of gathered net attached to a net stole. The full gathered skirts were finished with wide looped side bows. Their pillbox halo headresses matched the taffeta of the dresses. Their flowers were clusters of blue delphinium on white lace fans tied with white satin streamers with love knots and delphinium.

Ushers were Louie Davis, George Medley of Lubbock, and Perry N. Slagle, cousin of the bride.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her uncle, Harley Burrus, the bride was a picture in a gown of ice blue bride's satin, designed with a chantilly lace yoke, molded bodice buttoned down the back with tiny covered buttons. The long fitted sleeves were pointed over the hands. The full gathered skirt accentuated the pointed bodice and flowed into a chapel train. Her scalloped finger tip length veil of ice blue illusion was attached to a pillbox head-dress of shirred illusion. She carried a large white cattalaya orchid centered on a white lace fan with ice blue feathered carnations, white satin streamers tied with love knots and carnations completed the bouquet.

Mrs. Haines chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of taupe silk surrah designed with a portrait neckline and modified full skirt accented with pink velvet hat and gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Perry wore a two piece dress of mauve lace over harmonizing taffeta with fitted jacket and flared skirt. Pink velvet hat and gloves and white gardenia corsage completed her ensemble.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple was honored with a reception in Fellowship Hall. Miss Wanda Gollehan presided at the guest book. Attendants' bouquets centered the serving table which was laid with cloth of scalloped white net over blue. The beautifully decorated three tiered pastel blue bride's cake was served by Mrs. Ann Slagle, aunt of the bride. Another aunt, Mrs. Harley Burrus, presided at the silver punch bowl. Crystal appointments completed the table decorations.

For a wedding trip to points in New Mexico the bride traveled in a fitted suit of navy sheer wool, navy accessories, white jeweled hat, white gloves and white orchid corsage.

After February 8 the couple will be at 2113 15th Street in Lubbock. Mrs. Perry is a graduate of Canyon High School, attended West Texas State College and is employed by Standard Oil Company in Lubbock.

Mr. Perry is a graduate of San Angelo High School and is a senior at Texas Tech, majoring in civil engineering.

Scouts To Show Films Monday

Scout Troop 66 is presenting a movie of three films Monday night, February 9, at the First Christian Church. The shows are to begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Scouts are selling tickets for the affair and the proceeds are to go into the Scout treasury.

Two of the films will be from the "Ducks Unlimited" series. One will be of retriever gun dogs working with ducks. This is one titled "Wonder Dogs in Action." Title of the second is "Grand Prairie," showing ducks and geese near Stuttgart, Arkansas. These two films should be of particular interest to the local duck and goose hunters as well as the general public.

The third film shows scenes from the last International Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Histories are more full of examples of the fidelity of dogs than of friends. —Alexander Pope

Require Permit For Irrigation Wells on Plains

Beginning February 1st permits must be secured from the High Plains Water Conservation District before wells of a specified size can be drilled in certain portions of Randall County. These permits are required before wells for irrigation, domestic, municipal, and other uses, capable of producing 100,000 gallons of water per day can be drilled. Wells of four inches and larger generally fall in this classification.

The portion of the county affected is that part of Randall county underlain by the underground water reservoir that includes all or part of 22 counties. This reservoir has been designated by the State Board of Water Engineers and its boundaries have been established. The exact location by surveys and sections can be found on county records.

These permits are required before these wells can be drilled. Wells spudded in on or after February 1st will require a permit. The digging of a slush-pit before that date does not ease this requirement.

In Randall there are five elected committeemen that will conduct the affairs of the district locally. These men are Donald Olson, Marshall Rockwell, Jr., Fritz Friemel, D. L. Allison, and Neil Downing. These committeemen have all the necessary forms in their possession now. Application for permits are made to these committeemen.

Any three of these five committeemen can approve an application by signing the application. When the third signature is put on the application it then becomes valid and is considered by the district as a permit and the well can then be drilled.

The district also requires that a complete log be kept on all new wells. This log must be completed and returned to one of the committeemen within ten days after well completion. Also all new wells must be registered and this again will be handled through the committeemen.

At this time there is no over-all well spacing requirement applicable to counties forming the district. The County Committee will be delegated this authority on a county basis.

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District was formed by landowners in accordance with laws passed by the 51st Texas Legislature. Its purpose is to see that fair and just use is made of water, perhaps our greatest natural resource, and to prevent its waste. The district organization includes county committeemen and five district directors. In case of a dispute locally on permits the landowner has the right to appeal to the district board.

The Randall County committeemen are serving now without compensation. They are all Randall County landowners and have been irrigation farmers for several years. They wish to make it clear to the people that there is not one cent of charge for securing a permit to drill a well. Every one will receive fair and just treatment and the rights of the people will not be abused.

Canyonites Attend Area C-C Banquets

Chamber of Commerce banquets are being held over the Panhandle area and many of them are having representatives present from Canyon. Glenn Waggoner, local C-C manager, said recently that at least six local persons attended the Hereford Chamber of Commerce banquet on January 23.

On the same night the annual C-C banquet was held in Amarillo. Four persons from Canyon were present for this affair.

Attending the Hereford banquet were E. M. (Mutt) Myers, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Ples Harper; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny McBride, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Davis.

Speaker for the Hereford banquet was Dr. Floyd Golden, president of Eastern New Mexico University at Portales who substituted for Prof. Robert Jackson of TSCW who was unable to be present because of hazardous roads.

'Operation Bootstrap' Brings Cleveland Back Home To WT

A unique method of finishing school, at least here at WT, is a thing called "Operation Bootstrap" and it is by this method that Truman Cleveland, an airman, is working on his Masters degree.

"If a person can finish his degree in six months or less, he is eligible to apply for 'Operation Bootstrap,'" says Cleveland, who started back to WT this spring.

A person may apply for "Bootstrap" while he is in the Air Force, and his application goes through extensive military channels. If the application is approved, the airman is given "temporary duty at a college of his choice." He is then given six months to complete his degree and, receiving all the while regular pay, subsistence, and housing.

Cleveland completed his Bachelor of Science degree in the fall of 1951. He spent the spring and first summer semester working on his Masters. On July 14, 1951, he went into the Air Force and now, 19 months later, he is back to complete what he started.

While in the Air Force, Truman passed the O. C. S. test with flying colors, but unfortunately, the quota of the classes that he was to attend was filled before his name came up. And so, rather than go back and take the test again (which would have been required) he decided on "Operation Bootstrap."

Cleveland says that the procedure to be followed in applying for "Bootstrap" is a long and huckle-raising affair. The first thing you have to do is submit a transcript and letter from the college of your choice.

From there, the application goes through the unending military channels. Cleveland says a solid month was spent in collecting signatures from various officials. But he finally made it and now he is back at WT and hopes to complete his Masters by the end of the first summer term of 1953.

Although any airmen going to school under "Operation Bootstrap" has to pay his own tuition, books and traveling expenses, Cleveland says that the method is still more than welcome.

Cleveland, after finishing the work on his Masters, will have two more years to serve with the Air Force.

In the University of Wisconsin, students undergoing an examination in English were asked:

"Write out examples of the indicative, subjunctive, potential, and exclamatory moods."

To which one struggling pupil complied with the following:

"I am endeavoring to pass an English examination. If I answer 20 questions, I shall pass. If I answer 12 questions I may pass. God help me!"

"Women Are Like That" Is Slated For Two Productions, May 12-13

An English language version of Mozart's famed comic opera, "Women Are Like That," has been selected for this year's production by the West Texas State College Opera Workshop, Holmes Ambrose, director, has announced. The show will be presented May 12 and 13 in the Education Building Theatre.

Auditions for the six parts will be held in the Administration Building Auditorium Feb. 14, from 10 a. m. until 12. Forms for application must be submitted in order to try out. Mr. Ambrose said, and the application blanks may be obtained in Mr. Ambrose's office, Room 102, Administration Building.

Second opera undertaking at WT, the Mozart classic, "Cosi Fan Tutte," or "Women Are Like That," is a fitting successor to the successful "H. M. S. Pinafore," Gilbert and Sullivan operetta produced last year. While the show is an ambitious production, the story will have wide audience appeal.

"Women Are Like That" contains some of Mozart's finest music, and for sheer humor of plot, it is one of the world's most famous stories. The Metropolitan Opera Association produced the show two years ago in a new translation into modern English, and the opera has taken the country by storm since that time.

The Metropolitan translation, which was made by Ruth and Thomas Martin, is probably the most faithful in both musical and linguistic retention of all attempted English translations.

There is only one set of orchestra parts by the Metropolitan's publisher, and it is now in use in Toronto, Canada. The parts will be air mailed to WT immediately.

Canyon Students Serve On Committees At Baylor U.

Three Canyon students are on the committees of Baylor University classes to re-write the constitution of that school. This announcement was made last week by the mother of one of the students from Canyon.

Each class has a committee of eight students representing that section in changing the constitution. Harrell Slack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burney Slack, is one of the freshman representatives.

The sophomore representative from Canyon is Tommy Gooch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gooch.

Representative from Canyon in the senior class is Mable Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham.

Retiring Secretary Charles Sawyer forecasts an era of good business, but Price Stabilizer Freehill said the abandonment of price controls would cost the nation at least $3,000,000,000 a year.

Tour Gives Group Sneak Preview of Livestock Show

A full dress rehearsal for the sixth annual Randall County Junior Livestock Show was held Saturday afternoon, January 31. The big show itself is scheduled at Canyon on February 21. The rehearsal was in the form of a tour.

The president of the association, T. A. Black, led the car caravan as it wound around rural roads and highways seeking the home place of sleek barrows, fat steers, and woolly sheep. The boys were expecting the company and were ready.

The tour left the high school at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon and made the first stop to see the Durocs being fed by Tommy Myers. Then the steers belonging to Jack Metcalf, Doyle and Wesley Bourn, then Gail Cox and Larry Porter.

The Parker steers were next in line and Perry and Foster were ready. The big stop was then made at the Raymond Tueck farm where Glen, Weldon, Melvin and Norman had seven steers all primed for viewing.

From there the group visited the Conatser farm to see "Hot Shot" Conatser and his equally "Hot Shot" steer. A litter of Durocs was seen at the Lowell Hill place. Ross Craig managed to hold the halter of Albert's steer as the steer was meeting the company and then in a couple of minutes Ken Kuykendall was ready to show his pigs.

The tour ended at the Arthur Miller farm. Art and Johnny Miller first showed their four steers then they brought out the lamb. A Duroc barrow was next and then a Jersey bull. The group had to leave before Art got started on his prize poultry.

The well known judge, Dr. "Nig" Callihan, was along and everyone expected to see the best steer picked out in a hurry. When the tour was ended and 29 steers had been examined, "Doc" made the accurate remark that one of the group was sure to win at Canyon.

W. E. Miller, J. O. Parker, Glenn Dowlen, and Ross Craig went along as experts on guessing weights of each steer. After great deliberation and compromise they concluded that the steers would weigh between 500 and 2,000 pounds each.

The Canyon show will be a great show this year. The youngsters of Randall county are a deserving group and as keen a group of young feeders as can be found. Their show is supported by local business interests and individuals. It will be a show of the blue bloods, both livestock and boys, come February 21st.

Mrs. M. E. Cleavinger and Mrs. O. C. Axtell of Spring Lake left Friday morning for Alhambra and Norfolk, Calif. They will spend six weeks there visiting with Mrs. Cleavinger's sons.

Woman's Book Club Has Study Session January 28

When the Woman's Book Club met on February 28, its study session was in charge of Mrs. Ben D. Beck and Mrs. T. V. Reeves, the former presenting an account of the life and activities of Queen Juliana of Holland, the latter discussing Queen Elizabeth II of England.

There were 27 members and one guest present for the study and business sessions. In the latter, the club recommended Mrs. J. W. Walker, of Plainview, former president of the Seventh District and of the Texas Federation of Women's Club for consideration as a candidate for office in the American Federation of Women's Clubs.

The club voted to contribute $5 to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. C. A. Murray, president-elect of the Book Club, submitted her resignation. The nominating committee of the club was instructed to select another nominee for the office.

Those at the meeting were Mesdames Beck, Alfred Bellah, C. R. Burrow, S. H. Condrion, James P. Cornette, L. A. Donnell, C. M. Dowlen, Lon Fanning, Tom Gooch, Walter Graham, Charles Harter, A. B. Holt, Lee Johnson, J. W. Kleinschmidt, T. H. Knighton, S. B. Louder, T. B. McCarter, Nancy McCaslin, Clyde McElroy, Frank Morgan, M. J. Morris, Reeves, Irving SoKelle, Fred Standley, A. W. Sternberg, Misses Edna Graham, and Darthula Walker, and a guest, Mrs. Don Standley.

When the next meeting is held, on February 11, a study of American Industry will begin.

BIBLE CLASS SOCIAL HELD FRIDAY METHODIST CHURCH

The Murray Bible Class social met Friday night, January 30. The social was held in Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church.

"42" was played throughout the evening. Refreshments of cherry pie, ice cream, and coffee were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Taylor, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Art Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Adcock, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Joe Frank Talked On Trip to Central America at Rotary

"The 16 business men on our recent trip to Central America were ambassadors of goodwill," stated Joe Frank at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday.

Mr. Frank was introduced by Guy Harp, and spoke of the trip which he made with East Texas business executives.

He talked Canyon and Randall county whenever asked by natives where he was from and what he had to sell. He drew a map of Texas and placed a star near Canyon which showed his farm where he lives with his wife and daughters. "That is heaven" was his reply to conditions in this section. "The folks knew all about Canyon, its churches, schools, Buffalo Lake and the Palo Duro Park," stated Mr. Frank. "I told them the story."

One of the best ways to help the people of that section is through exchange of students, believes Mr. Frank. He advised Canyon people to invite the students into their homes and to become acquainted with them.

The various countries visited were described by the speaker, and some of the quaint customs were presented in a humorous manner.

Lewis Stoelzing and his luncheon orchestra furnished music during the meal.

The Buffalo Band concert of Thursday night was announced for Thursday night of this week.

The Rotary-Lions clubs will play the W. T. faculty on Feb. 24 for the benefit of crippled children.

Visitors were Capt. Fred Slaton and Sgt. John Hopkins of the Marine Recruiting Service; Bill Collins and Bob Lindsay of Borger; Jim Sanders, Roy Southland, R. C. Elliot, A. J. Foley, Earl Krome, R. E. Nickles, J. J. Sanders, Oran Thomas, Henry O. Trygg, all of Amarillo.

Mrs. Johnnie Franz of Turkey visited in the Clarence Stallings home Saturday.

Mrs. A. E. Davis of Lubbock is visiting in the C. B. Chandler home this week.

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

President of the United States is entitled to the full support of both parties in carrying into effect his campaign promises which were approved by the voters.

The National Capital is alive with gossip and rumors as to the meaning of some of the early actions in Congress. Actually, very little has been accomplished in Congress outside of organizational work. I had hoped that operations would get into full swing immediately after the 20th of January. However, it seems that there has been additional delay awaiting the President's message to Congress, which was delivered Monday.

The reason for this added delay seems to be the strife between the factions inside the Republican Party. Much of it is due to differences between the factions concerning the dispensing of patronage. It has already reared its ugly head in several of the House and Senate committees.

President Eisenhower is obviously doing his best to reconcile these differences and to bring about a spirit of cooperation that will expedite the fulfillment of his campaign promises to the American people. Certainly both parties owe it to this country to cooperate with him and his administration to honor and carry out the wishes of the American people.

The two major flare-ups that have occurred and have caused the greatest disturbance are:

1. The curtailment of presidential powers in reorganizing the Executive Branch of the Government.

2. The proposed tax reduction before balancing the budget.

Under the present law, which expires April 1st, the President has the right and power to reorganize the bureaus, agencies or departments in the Executive Branch of the Government by setting up his reorganization program and submitting it to Congress.

If Congress fails to veto such reorganization program within 60 days by a majority of the full membership of one of the Houses of Congress, the program automatically goes into effect.

That is, such a proposed program could be defeated by either House of Congress, the House of Representatives, or the Senate, but it must be remembered that in order to defeat such a program, more than 50 per cent of the entire membership of one of the Houses must be opposed to it. In order for this power or reorganization to remain in the President, it is necessary that Congress extend the law.

Since one of the major campaign promises of President Eisenhower was the consolidation and simplification of the Federal Government to bring about order and system, it was presumed that the extension of the Reorganization Act for at least two years would be requested.

Extension was requested and was advocated by ex-President Hoover, who, as you know headed the Hoover Commission and made many recommendations toward the simplification of the sprawling Federal system.

It did not occur to many of us that any controversy would arise concerning this. The bill was introduced and promptly taken up by the proper committees in the House and Senate for early action so that the new administration could get under way with the least possible delay.

The new budget director, Mr. Dodge, appeared before the House committee and stated his position clearly and concisely, and I might say ably. He sought a two-year extension of the present law with no changes. The testimony before the committee included the letter from Herbert Hoover insisting that such powers be continued in the President.

However, when the smoke had cleared, the committee had voted an amendment to the law which measurably cut down the presidential powers. This amendment provided that a presidential reorganization could be defeated on the floor of either House by the vote of a simple majority.

This simply means that should the matter come before either House at a time when only a few members were on the floor, a presidential reform or reorganization of a department or agency which could save the taxpayers of this nation many dollars, could be defeated and sent back to the White House.

Every member on the Democratic side of the House committee voted to sustain Eisenhower and to carry out his wishes in this matter. Every member on the Republican side with the exception of one, who voted present, voted against the expressed wishes of President Eisenhower delivered to the committee by the Director of the Budget, Mr. Dodge.

Everyone who knows anything about parliamentary procedure knows that one of the oldest tricks employed by a small bloc or minority is the trick of bringing up legislation while only those favoring the legislation, or opposed to it, as the case may be, are present.

What the overall results of this parliamentary maneuvering will be is difficult to foresee at the present time, but there is one thing for sure: President Eisenhower will receive almost unanimous support from the Southern democrats in Congress and many other democrats in reorganizing and reforming the boards, bureaus and departments of this Government if such reorganization will result in better efficiency, less federal jobs and less cost to the taxpayer. Such proposal should have the unanimous support of Congress in both Houses.

The tax reduction proposal that has caused much concern is the proposal by Representative Reed, of New York, to cut off the last tax increase at an early date. This would mean a tax reduction of around 5 1/2 per cent in 1953 and an overall tax reduction in later years of approximately 11 per cent.

There is no doubt but that Eisenhower promised the American people that he would work diligently toward tax reduction and the balancing of the budget.

The concern on Capitol Hill centers around the question of which is to come first — the chicken or the egg? Representative Reed takes the position that the tax reduction is in order and that balancing of the budget will follow in due course.

He is chairman of the tax writing House Ways and Means Committee and cannot be brushed aside. Other leaders in the Republican Party take the position that a great deal of work must be done on the budget toward a reduction thereof before any tax reductions can be thought of.

I do not hesitate to tell you that I expect to support Mr. Reed's position for the tax reduction, if for no other reason than to be consistent. This was the tax increase that I voted against, and I have not changed my position. It is my thought that the budget will be balanced much quicker if we take some action on reducing taxes, than will be the case if we spend a year or two discussing what we might possibly do without in the way of expenditures.

A nation is no different from an individual. As long as the money is provided to be spent, the chances are it will be disposed of. Although I would prefer to make the initial tax reduction by increasing personal exemptions, I certainly intend to go along with Mr. Reed if we can get some relief.

No husband is legally permitted to be present when his wife is signing a legal document. The theory is that he might unduly influence her.

Some theory! Anyhow it's the law. But women who take an interest in legislative matters are trying to bring about its repeal. This is one of the dozen projects that attract the interest of women, who have come a long way in establishing themselves around the capitol in the last 30 years.

Take it from Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, who was secretary of state from 1927 to 1933 — things were a lot different 30 years ago.

Then the women were trying to get the right to vote, but the "suffragettes" were subject to more ridicule than serious consideration from the male lawmakers.

The women were determined, however, and in 1918 Texas became the first Southern state to grant primary suffrage to women.

The difference today is like that between the daguerreotype and television.

Today there are more women than men around the legislative halls.

There are some 200 of them who attend to the members' typing, filing, and other secretarial chores. Not only that, but there also are four feminine lawmakers.

Senator Neveille H. Colson of Navasota is the first Texas woman to have served in both House and Senate. She was first elected to the House in 1939, served five terms, and was promoted in 1949 to the Senate, where she still serves.

Two women are serving their second terms in the House. They are Mrs. Dorothy Gillis Gurley of Del Rio and Miss Virginia Duff of Ferris.

Miss Duff is thought to be the smallest person ever to serve in the legislature. She is just under five feet tall and weighs 91 pounds. During last summer's campaign her weight went down to 86. Miss Duff says she is "Little but loud."

A freshman member of the House is Miss Anita Blair of El Paso, who lost her sight in an automobile accident in 1936.

Miss Blair has been informed by the American Foundation for the Blind that she is the first blind woman ever to be elected to public office.

Fawn, a 14-year-old seeing-eye dog, accompanies Miss Blair around the capitol.

The legislature's present four women members were antedated by Miss Margie E. Neal of Carthage, who was Texas' first woman senator. She was elected in 1927 and served until 1935.

Also by Mrs. Edith Wilms of Dallas, first Texas woman legislator. She was elected to the House and served in the 38th Legislature.

Some of the measures in which women are interested at this session are those that would:

1. Permit women to serve on juries. A resolution for this purpose has the support of Representatives Horace B. Houston, Jr., of Dallas and Lamar Zively of Temple. The resolution, if passed, would result in a vote of the people on a constitutional amendment.

2. Permit women to sell separate property without the consent of their husbands, if the property belonged to the woman before her marriage or was acquired by her through inheritance. Women have long sought this privilege.

3. Abolish the separate acknowledgment requirement for wives. This is the one that chases the husband out of the room while the wife is signing a legal document. Representative D. H. Buchanan of Longview is a supporter of this one.

4. Extend homestead tax exemptions to single persons. Many single women, as well as men, support relatives and should have the exemption the same as married couples, say adherents of this proposal.

5. Keep the motor vehicle inspection law. Officials of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers are behind this proposition. Some changes might be required, the board of managers agreed, to make the law workable. But the P-TA group thought the law ought to be retained.

6. Increase the basic teaching salary to $3,000 per year and give raises to principals and supervisors. This is another goal of the P-TA.

Approved by a house committee was a proposed constitutional amendment that would increase the salaries of legislators from $10 to $25 per day during the first 120 days of the session.

Members would get $5 per day after the first 120 days, the same as at present.

Proposed constitutional changes were introduced in both houses that would lift the present $35 million ceiling on welfare spending.

If passed by both houses and approved by the voters, this measure would permit greater payments to the aged, needy blind, and dependent children.

Two bills were aimed at reducing traffic accidents. Senator Carlos Ashley of Llano introduced one that would impose a minimum five-day jail sentence on drunken drivers.

Representative Thomas R. Joseph, Jr., of Waco advocates increasing drivers' license fees and spending the money to hire more highway patrolmen.

Governor Allan Shivers, who owns two newspapers, became a reporter to advocate raising salaries for teachers. Last week many Texas newspapers printed the first of a series of articles, under the Governor's by-line, advocating the increase.

The Texas Prison Board assures the legislature that disaster may result unless $3.5 million are spent for a new prison building at Eastham Farm.

The present farm facilities are "intolerable and indecent," the board's report said, and 1,200 prisoners could easily break out of the Brazoria County enclosure and cover the state in 24 hours.

Eventually, the state prison system is expected to become self-supporting.

The governing board reported that the average daily cost of keeping prisoners has decreased from 99 cents to 49 cents in the past five years.

Bronson Morgan of Jasper, a member of the board, said the system will maintain itself as soon as the farm and industrial programs reach maturity.

The state pays out a lot of money every month to rent office space in private buildings around the capitol.

Representative Bill Daniel of Liberty wants the state to put up its own office buildings on land near the capitol, now owned by the State.

If authorized by the legislature, the state would issue $6 million in bonds to construct the buildings.

Daniel says the state's rent bill in Austin now amounts to $250,000 per year.

Plans to rent the land have been temporarily sidetracked.

Representatives Thomas R. Joseph of Waco and Curtis Ford, Jr., of Corpus Christi offered a resolution to give Missouri to the national military establishment, "for such use as they see fit, if any use can be found."

The idea was to get back at Former-President Truman for giving away Texas' tidelands.

The whole thing was a joke, but Speaker Reuben Senterfitt solemnly declared that the resolution concerned broad legislative policy. He referred it to the Committee on Federal Relations.

Both Clark and Van Fleet praise the South Korean Army.

Only Enthusiasm

"Lively interest!" That is enthusiasm! We all know the meaning of the word, but do we apply it to our school work, our spirit, our loyalty?

More enthusiasm needs to be used in our school work. We get the lesson because it is an assignment, not because we want to do it. Perhaps if more enthusiasm was shown in the classrooms, a closer relationship would develop between the student and teacher.

A finished project in the creative arts departments would be by far more beautiful and useful, if the artisan would apply more imagination to the creation of the article.

There is no desire among many students to improve the reputation or popularity of our school. Our activities are not supported by the full student body, as they should be. Maybe our loyalty would improve, if all participants were more enthusiastically spirited.

We have no desire to improve the many activities. We set out to do a job, yet it is done in the same style and fashion that it has been presented in for many years. In annual events, there is no variety.

So come on kids, let's get out of the rut and apply enthusiasm to everything we do, to our school work, our spirit, our loyalty.

Make Use of Time!

Do you use your study period to the best advantage?

A recent survey of one of the study halls revealed that only one-fourth of the students enrolled for a study period actually study.

Many make several trips to check out magazines. There are others who constantly visit with someone across the aisle or sitting next to him, possibly keeping him from studying. Some even avoid lessons by checking out a novel to pass the time away. One would be surprised how many do nothing but watch the clock and make a fast dash for the door the second the bell rings. The supervisor is constantly kept busy by signing school passes for those who, for various reasons, wish to leave the study hall.

Students complain because the teachers give them too much to do, yet they waste much time that could be used to make better grades. Clock watching, magazine reading, talking and being disorderly won't help make those good grades that everyone wants.

Let us use our study hall for study, after all that is why we have them scheduled.

Scoring Spree Tops Floydada Whirlwind

Canyon's Soaring Eagles rang up another victory January 23 and 24 by winning the Floydada Invitational Basketball Tournament at Floydada, by dropping the Whirlwinds in the final round.

In the first round the Eagles upset the Hereford Whitefaces 51-44. The second round the Eagles unseated the Lockney Longhorns by 68-55. The third round was a wild scoring spree and Canyon was doing the most scoring, the final score being 63-37, with all players seeing action.

At the close of the tournament, Tom Middleton and Guy Hamblen were selected on the All-Tournament team. Each was awarded a gold basketball.

During the tourney, the boys stayed in the homes of Floydada boys.

Blackhawks Win
Despite a third quarter rally, the Eagles were upset by the Phillips Blackhawks, 56-48, in the WT fieldhouse, Tuesday, January 28.

B Eagles Win
The B Eagles had a rough and rugged struggle in dropping the Austin Junior High of Amarillo squad, coached by Lloyd Johnson, former CHS coach, in the Canyon Grade School January 23.

In the first meeting of the two teams, Amarillo won the match by a 28-24 margin. The Eagles invaded the Austin battleground last Friday and evened the match by a score of 47-30.

Burrow, McBroom Lead Scoring
The B team dropped the Phillips Blackhawks 50-33, Wednesday, in the WT fieldhouse with Leroy Burrow and Bill McBroom leading in the scoring.

Marciano is ordered to defend his title by April 10.

"After that I could go for some Graham crackers and Cole slaw," stated Moe. "To be Franklin, so could I." Snapped Shmoe. They started off in Vandergriff's car and drove to Wilkinson's cafe. "Parker here," yelled Moe.

The place resembled a Barn-hill and it gave them the Chil-ders. Said Moe, "I feel all Coop-ered up in here, but they do serve Cunnig-ham. This Green cabbage is Keeling me. Tell Davis, the waiter, to call Neblett hospital and order a Caskey-et for me."

Bands Hold Meet Monday Evening

Soft drinks and a fellowship hour ended the Tri-City band meet in Tulia Monday night.

The high school bands of Tulia, Hereford, and Canyon, recently decided to meet twice a month for the purpose of playing more difficult music than is normally used in band classes and for using the better musicians of each band to the best of their ability.

The second of the series of sessions started with the playing of "March-Gloria," followed by "Lady of Spain," "Irish Folk Song Suite," "Hall of Fame," a concert march, and "Si Trocadero."

Third meeting of the combined bands is slated for February 9 at the Hereford High School band house.

The Tri-City band is under the direction of Herman Demus, Canyon, Vernon Lewis, Tulia, and Bill Latson, Hereford.

Basketball Queen, King Are Elected

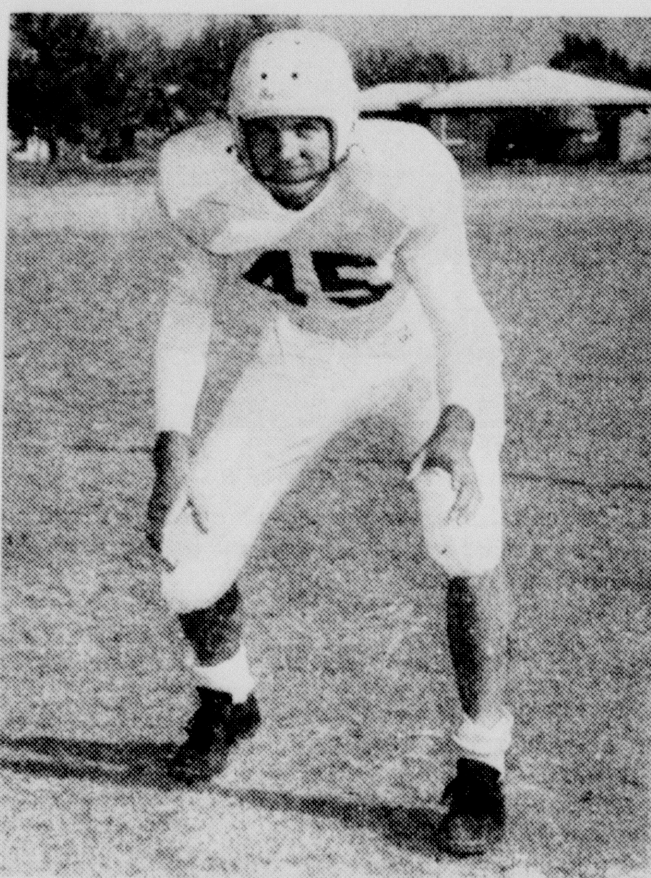

Joan Payne and R. A. Burgess were elected 1952-53 basketball queen and king. Joan was elected by the Eagles' basketball team Wednesday, January 28, in a meeting of the A team. R. A. was elected by the Eaglettes for king of basketball Monday, January 26.

This is Joan's first year in high school. She is a member of the girls' chorus this year. Other honors other than king held by R. A. are: Third vice-president of FFA, FFA Junior Chapter Conducting Team, football 51-52, freshman basketball, co-captain B team, 51, and FFA Senior Chapter Conducting Team. R. A. and Joan will be crowned king and queen at the annual athletic banquet which will be held later in the year.

Middleton, Pruitt Named All-District

Richard Pruitt, center, recently was polled on the All-District team. Richard is also a senior, and also hopes to play college ball.

Tommy Middleton, left end, has been polled on the All-District football team. Tommy is a member of the senior class.

Four years of hard work in football and other sports have finally paid off for Tom Middleton and Richard Pruitt. Both boys were surprised when learning of their being chosen on the 2AA All-District Team as selected by the district coaches.

Tom and Richard have made football and basketball one of the major things in their high school life. Starting when they were freshmen, they worked up from the B squad to the A squad. The more they played, the more they enjoyed it.

Richard is senior class president, lettered in basketball and twice in football. He was reporter for the FFA chapter conducting team to State in 1949 and 1952.

Tom was class favorite during his freshman year. He is a delegate to the SFC for the senior class and has several letters in football, basketball, and track. He was selected as Honorable Mention All-Regional in football this year.

If given the opportunity, both boys will try college sports. Middleton was handicapped last season with a broken arm, making his selection a surprise to him.

27th Year

Norris Samuelson Is Selected Initial 'Driver of the Year' in Canyon High

A blonde-headed, cheerful lad has been chosen as the top-notch driver in Canyon High School. 'Driver of the Year' is Norris Samuelson, an outstanding personality of the sophomore class.

January was designated by Gov. Allan Shivers as "Hand Signal Month in Texas." In observance of this proclamation, The Eagle's Tale has conducted this survey, which will become an annual event.

This top rating was given Norris because of daily excellence in consideration and observance of other traffic, obedience to speed limit zones and high regulations, and the proper use of hand and light signals. Another major characteristic in his everyday driving is that he does not drive recklessly or show off his driving ability to his friends. The committee members who selected the winner were a policeman, a high school instructor, and two students.

Norris has been driving for 2½ years, and during that time he has not had an automobile accident of any description or any traffic violation.

Norris has cheerfully and courageously capitalized on the thing that many persons would term a handicap. He was stricken with infantile paralysis on September 24, 1951, which left him paralyzed in the left leg. He was in the hospital from that date until Jan. 12, 1952. He has a lively personality, strong determination, and an abundance of vigor and energy, which he applies to his school work and activities. These enable him to equal or excel many of his classmates. He carries a full schedule of band, English, history, biology, and algebra, and his scholastic rating is high.

A talented tuba player in the high school band, he is also vice-president of his class, a member of the Science Club, and a leader in MYF. Norris attended the annual Summer Music Camp at Gunnison, Colo., this past summer, and is deeply interested in the recently formed three-band organization.

Heading a long list of hobbies is photography and band, and when he has the sufficient apparatus, he plans to become a ham radio operator. He will be 16 on Saturday.

Bob Huddleston, senior, was selected runner-up in this contest.

CHS Eaglettes Win Over Tulia Hornets

If you were hankering for excitement, you should have seen the Canyon Eaglettes vs. Tulia Hornets basketball game Thursday in the grade school gym, in which the Eaglettes came out on top 53-35. This was the first conference game of the season for the Eaglettes.

The Eaglettes and Hornets took turn being in the lead the first half of the game which ended 16-16. The Hornets moved off in the lead in the second half, but did not stay long, for the Eaglettes caught up and went on to win. The local girls have three more conference games to play. The next game will be with Floydada at Floydada tomorrow.

Dutch Entertainers Portray Homeland

Wooden shoes and gay colored costumes were worn by the two Van Pelt Dutch entertainers, Harry and his wife, Chita Maria, during their presentation of varied songs and dances on January 16 in the auditorium. Both were talented in instrumental and vocal music. Harry and Chita Maria are employed by the Southern Assembly Program.

They presented a true Dutch dance, which brought applause and cheers from the audience. Chita Maria, who is called "The Singing Nightingale," had a voice that could match the tones from a musical saw. Both were skilled in playing the electric guitar, and their singing abilities thrilled the students.

They were good in speaking the different languages of English, German, and French, as it was taught in their schools. They presented clever dances and songs from these lands, and their humorous imitations of some of our Western songs, such as "Jambalaya" and "Tennessee Waltz," brought a warm response from the group. Everyone rose and joined in as they sang "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You," which was scheduled last on the program.

The Van Pelt's left Holland three months ago, and this was their fourth tour of the United States. They made a tour of Texas three years ago. Between acts Harry told of some of the types of sports that are popular in his country.

Among these sports are golf, hockey, tennis, basketball, baseball, and soccer. They are played somewhat different from our own, however. In Holland there are ten persons on a basketball team; five girls and five boys. In baseball the ball is hit with the open palm rather than with a bat. He also demonstrated the art of eating raw herring, which is quite common with his people.

CHS Librarians Attend Meeting

The Canyon High Library Club registered Saturday morning for the Teen-Age Library Association meeting on the campus of West Texas State College.

Songs by the WTSC A Cappella Choir, under direction of Dr. Houston Bright, opened the program. Dr. James P. Cornette, president, welcomed the students and introduced Miss Loula Grace Erdman, noted author, who spoke on "How To Write a Book."

After lunch the members enjoyed movies of libraries in the basement of the new library, followed by a tour through the building conducted the Canyon club.

Pastor Addresses CCYC Assembly

"Day by day we must prepare for the future by increasing our mind, character, and spirit," stated the Right Reverend Quarterman, pastor of the Canyon Episcopal Church, in a Canyon Christian Youth Council assembly Wednesday.

Dorothy Cleavinger, CCYC representative, opened the morning program with two hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "I Need Thee Every Hour." Scripture was read from the sixth chapter of Matthew.

Reverend Quarterman talked to the students about their future. He declared that high school members are often found to worry about what the future holds for them.

The pastor pointed out that it is good to have high dreams but we must also work to live up to them. As a theme carried out through his address he used the phrase, "Day by day, to emphasize that we must keep up with our work and the future will not be hard to compete with. Today and the way you use it will make the future."

Responsibility points to the future of each individual. We must be concerned with now for yesterday is gone and tomorrow has not yet arrived. The responsibility of today must be fulfilled.

In conclusion Reverend Quarterman said, "Day by day we must work for he who sent us. Live out your tasks daily. Believe and trust in God and he shall bring it to pass."

Harry Truman, ex-President: "As partners in a free association of independent nations, we have grown in strength and unity."

Fairview Breezes

During the past week the weather has been fair and warm out our way.

Brother Lantrop preached two fine sermons Sunday.

Miss Lorene Martin and Mrs. Wheatley of Amarillo were visitors at church services Sunday.

The "42" tournament at the Community Center was enjoyed by ten tables of progressive "42." Refreshments consisting of pop and cookies were served to 52 adults and 16 children by the hostesses, Lizzie Wesley, Georgia Rogers, Edna Wilson, Anna Read, and Lavena Amerson.

Next Saturday night is the final night of the "42" tournament and the hostesses will be Annie Wesley, Letha Patterson, Orene Rogers, Serena Bryan, and Madge Sutton.

Miss Lorene Martin from Amarillo visited from Friday until Sunday with Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Vesta Amerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Washburn and daughter visited Monday with Mrs. Serena Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson and Darrell visited Saturday in the L. H. Barnard home near Bushland.

Mr. and Mrs. Finis Brazil have recently moved to the Melvin Miller place. Roland Northan, son-in-law of Finis Brazil, recently had the misfortune of getting his leg broken in three places.

We hear that Theo Wise is moving to Canyon sometime in the near future.

We were glad the O. J. Read family was able to be in church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley were on the sick list Sunday.

Mrs. Ora Evans and her mother, Mrs. Wheatly, and Mrs. E. E. Wesley, Arlen and son were Sunday visitors in the J. W. Wesley home.

E. E. Wesley left Sunday to go to Oklahoma to enter McBride Bone and Joint Hospital for treatment and perhaps surgery.

Charles Sutton had a bale of hay fall on his knee sometime last week. The hay cracked a sliver of his knee cap and is supposed to be confined at home.

According to word received from J. W. Wesley and Richard Evans at Mineral Wells, both are doing fine.

AAUW Meeting Stresses Projects

The February meeting of the Canyon Branch, American Association of University Women, which was held at the cafeteria of West Texas State College Monday night, was characterized by a look backward, and planning for the future.

This year the Canyon Branch will celebrate its Silver Anniversary, along with seven other branches in Texas, and discussion showed that the membership wished to make this celebration a memorable occasion in the organization. Mrs. Charles Harter, the president, has not yet designated the committee which will be in charge.

In its forward look the Branch voted to sponsor the program of education in Randall County for the American Cancer Society. Dr. Leta Boswell has been chosen by the district as the physician on the county committee.

The Fellowship Fund of the A. A. U. W. will receive $1.00 per member from Canyon. This fund makes it possible for many women to continue study in the graduate field.

Because the regular meeting date for April falls in the Easter vacation, it was voted to have the April meeting on the second Monday of the month.

Mrs. James Murphy White, Mrs. T. H. Lair, and Dr. Ruth Lowes conducted the study hour for the Children's Literature group; Miss Elizabeth Jacobs and Miss Matilda Gaume reviewed, compared and contrasted the plays, "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and "The Misanthrope" for the drama group; Mrs. Lowell Harrison, who, with her husband, spent last year in the British Isles, discussed economic problems of England for the International Relations group; the Social Studies group, which has "Mental Health" for its topic this year, heard a discussion of "Basic Drives." Mrs. Michael Morris is chairman of this group.

Subjects for next year's study groups were discussed; reports were given by Mrs. Frank Barnhill, treasurer, Miss Alice Payne, finance chairman, and Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Status of Women chairman.

About 45 members were present.

Former Citizen Gets Copies of Books

Miss Mate G. Hunt has been shipped two copies of Loula Grace Erdman's book, "The Wind Blows Free." Miss Hunt was here during the holidays and visited in the Fronabarger home. She went to Dreamland Cemetery to locate the grave of her father who died here several years ago.

Miss Hunt had been unable to locate copies of the book and ordered them through Warwick's.

Error Made in the Salary Schedule

The salaries of the County Treasurer and District Clerk were raised only $250 per year instead of $750 according to a statement made Monday.

The record of the Commissioners Court shows that the salaries had been increased from $3,000 to $3,750 per year. The record was in error as the salaries last year were $3,500 per year.

Bufs Lost Hot Game to Tech

The Buffaloes lost Saturday night to Texas Tech in one of the hottest games local fans have witnessed in some time. A record crowd of 3,950 witnessed the game, establishing a new high attendance.

The victory of Tech was due largely to Paul Nolen, who scored 20 points in spite of a broken nose, wearing a plastic headgear. He was in the game only 20 minutes and 56 seconds.

The Buffs sank only 268 per cent of their field goals, while Tech scored 353, which made the difference in the 79-68 victory for the South Plains crew.

The Buffs played New Mexico A&M at Las Cruces last night, and will meet Texas Western at El Paso tonight. The team will then return home to prepare for a return engagement with Texas Western on Feb. 11 and New Mexico A&M on Feb. 14.

Alvin Jennings To Preach Locally

He is coming home to officiate at the wedding of his brother, Neal, and Miss Peggy Black on Feb. 14. He has several speaking engagements in Texas and Oklahoma while in the States. He will attend the annual lectures at Abilene Christian College, Feb. 22-26. Several members of the church will accompany him to Canyon.

Letters to News

Dear Mr. Editor:

A few words to those teenage boys with delinquent parents:

Friday about 4 p. m. several boys jumped into a pickup truck parked near A. B. Holt's office, headed east. Two boys were in the back of the truck and the other on the right side jumped up and told the driver to "Run over that old man," who was on the edge of the street going to the post office. I heard the smart-alec boy, so they headed back to school.

I wish to say to that smart boy: That the runaway road leads to the jail; thence to the state prison, or flitting with the undertaker. Better be careful.

There is no such thing as a delinquent child, but there are delinquent parents and teachers.

A little child is like clay in the potter's hands. One can guess the balance.

Same way about the dogs. I still live in the "dog end of town," and the people violate the city law every time the hound is turned out, to prowling the alleys, as the outlaws.

Yes, and some boys spoil Hallo-we'en by destroying property and throwing rocks on or against houses.

I'm very much for the law which makes parents responsible for the acts of their teen-agers. There are many nice boys, but there are a few cowardly hoodlums who do damage, and then run.

Respectfully,
JOHN KNIGHT

Just Between You, Me and the Gatepost

(By Lawrence Hunnicutt)

During the past few weeks the flu bug has taken quite a toll about town. Pat Britain, who has been working the Amarillo Golden Gloves Tournament, lost his bout to the flu bug before lugging his camera to the fights. Almost everyone you meet on the street has either been sick or has had to take care of someone in the family who has been sick. In the face of all this illness people are probably glad to see the month of January end and February take over.

One of the commendable things we noticed last week was the donation the Breakfast Club Cafe was making to the March of Dimes campaign. Last Friday afternoon between the hours of 1 and 6 the cafe was giving all the coffee money to the March of Dimes campaign. We never got around to finding out whether any other business was making a similar contribution. The flu bug also bit out a chunk of our time last week. Even though the drive is over now, it would be nice to know of any other similar contributions to keep in mind for next year.

While various types of interruptions entered the scene recently a story was missed. It was one about the new officers elected in the Volunteer Fire Department. Alvin McDonald replaced Bill Sternberg as Fire Chief and we haven't learned the other officers in the department as yet.

Another local organization which needs the support and goodwill of more people is the Randall County Junior Livestock Association. The boys will be having their show in a few weeks. These boys need proof that their efforts are being watched. This proof can be given with a large turnout for their show and lots of public interest in the livestock they have raised.

Our outstanding citizen this week is E. M. (Mutt) Myers, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Mutt is no newcomer to Canyon. He was born here and has lived here 45 years. The present Chamber of Commerce president was selected as the town's most outstanding citizen for 1951. He was given the plaque at the annual C-C banquet early in January of 1952 when the speaker for the occasion was Governor Allan Shivers.

Myers has been the secretary-treasurer of the Randall County Junior Livestock Association almost every year since that organization started. There was only one year besides this one that he was not secretary-treasurer. This year he is on the board of directors in the Livestock Association.

Mutt is probably one of the most versatile workers in the area as far as civic matters are concerned. He has been active in the local Lions Club for a number of years. This year he is a member of the board of directors of that organization. He has also served on the board of directors of the Canyon City Club.

The highly active civic worker is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church. His family was elected as the most typical family in the church for 1952.

Like most highly active workers, Myers is a family man. He is married and has three children. He has a boy 15 years of age, a girl 11 and another boy 8. You'll probably look a long time before finding a more outstanding civic worker and public figure than Mutt Myers.

The typical Texan, they say, is one who goes from the sublime to the ridiculous. We take that leap now as we dash headlong into that portion known as Chirps of Wisdom.

It's later than you think and this is especially true if you're behind the times.

The difference between appreciation and flattery is merely the preposition in. One is sincere and the other insincere.

Then there's the case of the student who made a remark before his instructor, "He's dumber than me."

Meaning to correct him the teacher said, "He's dumber than I."

"All right," said the student, "then he's dumber than both of us."

Vaccines For Polio Still Experimental Says Medical Head

Reports of a vaccine capable of preventing polio and the use of gamma globulin for minimizing the effects of the disease are heralded as major achievements in the research against this great crippler and killer of children. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, warns that both are still in the experimental stage. While they hold great promise much study will yet have to be done before being available to the general public.

In the meantime, Dr. Cox advises that everyone observe the known rules of sanitation. These practices have proven their value not alone in the prevention of polio, but of other diseases such as typhoid fever, dysentery and malaria. Even when a definite preventive of polio is available to the public they should not discontinue their efforts toward maintaining sanitary surroundings.

Sanitation efforts should be carried out every month and every day in the year. Householders, business houses and industry are responsible for keeping their property in a sanitary condition. Cities must furnish an uncontaminated water supply, maintain an efficient sewage disposal system and proper garbage collection and disposal.

Dr. Cox placed the responsibility on the individual when he said, "Insanitary places do not make the person but the person makes the places. If you have been lax in maintaining cleanliness of your surroundings during the past few months, now is a good time to start an intensive clean up. Texans can help prevent disease and assure themselves of better health by maintaining a high standard of sanitation."

Because nearly half the corps will be rotated out of service this year, the U. S. Marine Corps may have to turn to the draft for men. Up to now, the Corps has been taking men only by voluntary enlistments.
